

BALINGUP CARNIVALE

a medieval afayre

SATURDAY, AUGUST 18 • NOON-7PM

A family day of fun and entertainment

- Gypsy music with the Kashtany Duo
- Jousting with The Grey Company
- Eastern dancing with the Belles of Baghdad
- Medieval music with Psallite
- Dragonfly and the Funky Fairy Band
- Selva Nix clairvoyant
- The Punch and Judy Three Wheel Circus
- Market stalls and much more...

★ DRESS UP AND JOIN IN THE GRAND PROCESSION ★

Adults $5 • Children $2
• Family of 2 Adults and 2 Children $10

ENQUIRIES 9764 1457

Bunbury Chamber of Commerce and Industries

Ric Harrison
Executive Director

THE CHAMBER AT WORK

- Thank you to the friendly people at Southern Staff Management, who were hosts for July's popular 'Business After Hours' function. A relaxed and informal way to wind down after the day's work.
- We are planning to write a history of the Chamber since the 1890s. If you'd like to take on this project, or you know someone who may, please contact Ric Harrison.
- Chamber members can look forward to another informative and entertaining Annual General Meeting on August 27, this year with a sporting theme at the South Bunbury Football Club. Nominations for Executive Committee can be made direct to the Chamber office or on the night.
- Think Local First. This major community campaign starts very soon. Chamber members will get the details first - see the August newsletter.

Coming Events

- Tuesday, August 7, 5.30pm. Education, Training and Leadership Committee.
- Wednesday, August 8, 8am. Management Committee.
- Wednesday, August 22, 8am. Management Committee.
- Wednesday, August 22, 10am. Official Launch of the Think Local First campaign.
- Monday, August 27, 5.30pm. Annual General Meeting.
- Friday, August 31, 5.30pm. Mayoral presentation sundowner for Customer Service Awards.

We Welcome New Members

Contact us for an information pack that will explain what you can gain, then join over 650 other local businesses and help to make a difference. Most businesses pay only $140 or $240 for the entire year, which includes advertising and a newsletter subscription plus all Chamber benefits. Welcome and thank you to this week's new members:

Bunbury Educational Supplies, Mike Anderson
Katalra Furniture and Design, Narelle Fretwell
Papalia Partners PL, Hugh McDonnell and Steven Ieraci
Soho Stationery Supplies, Mike Anderson
The Tyre Place, Les Holmes
WA Shelving and Storage, Darren Rigg
Western Tourist Radio, Barry Green

Contact Us:

Podium Level, Bunbury Tower, 61 Victoria Street, Bunbury.
PO Box 739, Bunbury WA 6231. Telephone 9791 2292.
Fax 9791 6646.
email: beci@beci.asn.au

Supported by:

South Western Times
and Bunbury Herald

out & about

Edith Piper and Jack McMahon cut the cake representing 20 years.

Life member Arthur Waters and president Phyl Barnes.

20 years of bridging game gap

BUNBURY Bridge Club celebrated its 20th anniversary on Friday night.

More than 45 people attended the dinner at the club rooms in Carey Park.

Club president Phyl Barnes welcomed everyone along to the milestone event before members enjoyed a tasty dinner and witnessed the cutting of the cake by two founding life members.

MC Peter Morgan then entertained all with anecdotes of the last 20 years at the club.

The Bunbury Bridge Club competes in State, national and international competitions.

ABOVE Original members Judy Clarke, Peter and Jan Morgan.

RIGHT: Original members Nils Andersson and Ethel Wilson.

Vivian and Doug Tweedie.

Henk Cransberg and club secretary Delia Adams.

EYESPY

Cape to Cape as you have never seen it before

Cape Naturaliste to Cape Leeuwin

This recent image of the Capes, taken by LANDSAT 7 satellite from 700km above the earth, shows an enormous wealth of details at a resolution of 12 metres.

From the jetty in Busselton down to the sand bars and reef of Augusta, you will be amazed by all the superb details.

This colour poster, printed on heavy and rich paper with a laminated finish, will make a unique wall display for any school, office or home.

The print size is H90cm x W70cm.

$49.95

Plus $5.50 for packing and postage

As a very special offer you can

QUICK AS A FLASH

your car will never look so clean

• Satisfaction guaranteed.

